We cut the map of our 961 homes into 4 areas. Stephen Costello has area 1, Marilyn Floyd has area 2, Annette Gillespie has area 3 and Colleen Cole has area 4. The four coordinators will blanket their area once with the newsletter and signs.

Annette Gillespie is the Neighborhood coordinator. The hierarchy is:
Neighborhood Coordinator- Annette Gillespie
Coordinators, the 4 areas in the above paragraph
Block Captains- 6 to 10 houses per block
Coordinators will need to get block captains

Coordinators and their captains will meet 2 times a year.

Temporary RCONA Rep is Stephen Costello.

Sue Cook to email sample newsletters. Stephen Costello to generate our newsletter. We are working to get our bylaws approved by the next meeting. We will hold a general meeting July 9th, 2013 at Crestmont Park with a representative of RCONA and with our neighborhood officers present to answer questions, get sign ups to join the SCNA and to pass the bylaws.

We hope to be part of RCONA by National Night Out, August 6th, and hold an ice cream social with RCONA rep and our local police officer. Sue Cook to email the National Night Out application. We will borrow the RCONA banner to hang at the park. Board meeting 6:30 p.m. with general meeting 7:00 p.m. Marilyn Floyd to email Sargent Josh Simon to request officer at the park for the meeting.

The U.S. Bank will need 4 signers on our account. The President, Treasurer, Secretary and the RCONA Treasurer.

Meeting Adjourned 7:45 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Marilyn Floyd, Provisional Secretary
